MARCHING BAND

NOTES

- The full Auburn Band traveled to two of the Tigers' out-of-town games this season...Florida and Alabama. In addition, a smaller "pep band" of about 50 players attended the games at Ole Miss and Mississippi State.
- During 1997, the Auburn Band celebrated its 100th birthday. Numerous events and activities took place in honor of this milestone in the band's history. A book, The Auburn University Band, A Centennial History, was published and is still available to band alumni, friends, and supporters. Order forms are available from the band office (334) 844-4166.
- Recording and mastering engineer - Jim Gauntt.
- This CD was recorded during three one-hour sessions in Jordan-Hare Stadium on the campus of Auburn University during the fall of 2000. The primary stereo microphone used was a Neumann KU100" binocular system along with two Beyerdynamic MCG740" outrigger mics in wide cardioid mode. The 4-channels were recorded at 24 bits A/D conversion to a DEVA" hard disk field recorder by Zaxcom. Mastering was accomplished with a Pendulum OCL 2" optical compressor using Apogee UV22H" processing. ABOUT THE AUBURN BAND

Founded in 1897, the band program at Auburn University is one of the oldest and largest in the nation. Band members are chosen by audition and represent virtually every academic discipline on the Auburn campus. About 50 of the 325 band members are music majors preparing for careers in teaching or performance. The remaining members are in the band for the sheer enjoyment that the college band experience provides. The 2000 A.U. Marching Band includes members from Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, New Jersey, North Carolina, Ohio, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia, as well as Alabama.

The Auburn University Bands are housed in the Goodwin Music Building, a structure made possible through the generosity of the James W. Goodwin family of Birmingham. The marching band practices on Wilbur "Bodie" Hinton Field. Completed in 1985, Hinton Field is considered to be the finest outdoor marching band facility in the country.

Since its beginning, one of the primary goals of the Auburn Band has been to foster the great AUBURN SPIRIT. With over thirty performances and exhibitions starting at the beginning of Fall Semester and running until the end of the football bowl season, the Auburn University Marching Band does just that!
