With over 200 members in its ranks, the University of Washington's Husky Marching Band has established itself as one of the most entertaining collegiate marching bands in the nation. The band's latest compilation of music shows how the diversity of the Husky Marching Band has allowed it to appeal to such a wide variety of audiences over the years. Whether it is playing in front of 73,000 fans at beautiful Husky Stadium on a fall Saturday afternoon, or the intimate setting of a concert hall, the Huskies put on an energetic extravaganza not soon to be forgotten. • In HUSKY FEVER, the Band helps you "Get Back to Where You Once Belonged" with a memorable set of favorites from the Beatles. The four lads from Liverpool probably never envisioned having their music played by a marching band, but the HMB's energetic versions would certainly make any fan of the Mop Toppers proud. • You want variety? The Huskies can provide it in plenty! The Husky Marching Band performs a number of movie classics with many other memorable toe-tappers. The Theme to the TV show, Happy Days, a Disney Medley and James Bond scores are blended with the likes of Ode to Joy, This is My Country and Just Can't Wait to be King. • Keeping in the retro spirit that is sweeping the country, the Huskies have tossed in their own favorite hits from the '70s including a medley from the Jacksons that will have you bringing your bell-bottoms out of the closet. • And what Husky Band musical collection would be complete without the Big Three – Louie, Louie, Tequila and Bow Down to Washington. Simply put, HUSKY FEVER is a variety pack of music that allows the diversity and talents of the Husky Marching Band to shine through once again. ....Jim Daves, Director – UW Media Relations
