

For thousands of hard-core Buckeye Band enthusiasts around the country, the message needs no embellishment. Straight from Columbus, Director Jon Woods and his troops have issued another impeccable collection of marching band masterpieces.

For those few who might not be acquainted with the unforgettable Buckeye sound, a veritable showcase of pure Ohio State artistry is contained herein.

Seldom has the Ohio State virtuosity been on such conspicuous display. Eclectic offerings such as Across the Years and St. Louis Blues are interspersed with rousing favorites such as Boogie Down, Tiger Rag and Alexander's Ragtime Band.

There's more. The band's martial acumen parades in Les Regiments, Olympic Fanfare and Military Escort. All this, together with Ohio State favorites such as the inevitable Buckeye Battle Cry and Hang On Sloop.

It's a fascinating mix. Even minimal exposure is almost certain to drive a first-time listener inexorably into Buckeye camp, restlessly awaiting the next release.
