

The Auburn University Music Department and the College of Liberal Arts is proud to offer the sounds of the 2011-12 Auburn University Marching Band. With 380 performers, the AUMB maintained its record membership in 2011-12 and continued its 114-year tradition of representing Auburn University with pride, precision, discipline, and energy. In addition to performances at seven home football games, the full band traveled to Clemson, LSU, and Georgia during the regular season to cheer on the Tigers and serve as ambassadors for Auburn. Following the regular season, the band performed and celebrated another Auburn victory at the Chick-fil-a Bowl in Atlanta, Georgia

In addition to the traditional pregame show, the band presented a variety of different halftime shows in 2011. The AUMB opened the season with "Celebration," a show commemorating the Tigers undefeated season and National Championship in 2010. For the Mississippi State game on September 11, the band performed a special arrangement of Amazing Grace and America the Beautiful in honor of those affected by the attacks ten years ago. The same selection was repeated later in the season in a joint performance with the University of Alabama band, celebrating our home state and remembering those who lost their lives in the April 2011 tornados. The band also entertained fans with a "Wild West" show, featuring a collection of cowboy classics. Much of the music from the 2011 halftime shows is included on this disc, along with many of the popular selections used to cheer on the tigers each Saturday in Jordan Hare.

In 2011, AUMB members shared laughter, excitement, and triumph and made wonderful memories while serving as outstanding ambassadors for Auburn University. We greatly appreciate the support of Auburn University President, Dr. Jay Gogue, College of Liberal Arts Dean, Dr. Anna Gramberg, Music Department Chair, Dr. Sara Lynn Baird, and the entire Auburn University Athletics Department. We sincerely hope you enjoy this year's recording.
