"PRIDE OF THE ROCKIES" MARCHING BAND

The recipient of numerous rave reviews, the "Pride of the Rockies" horn line is 100 strong plus marching and pit percussion, colorguard, and the critically acclaimed "Sugar Bears" dance line. The band performs at all home football games and selected exhibitions. The "Pride of the Rockies" is a corps-style powerhouse that incorporates the latest music arrangements with state-of-the-art drill design. Non-instrumentalists are encouraged to audition for the colorguard.

WIND ENSEMBLE

The Wind Ensemble is comprised of 45 of the University's finest musicians, and performs both wind ensemble literature (music written to be played by only one person per part) and recognized band masterpieces. The Wind Ensemble performs annually at the Colorado Music Educators Association Convention and has performed on a national level at the College Band Directors National Association Convention.

SYMPHONIC BAND

The Symphonic Band's 65 players perform outstanding band literature, while maintaining a balance between standard repertoire and recent compositions. In addition to its many concerts at Foundation Hall and Union Colony Civic Center, the Symphonic Band hosts the UNC Conducting Symposium, accompanies winners of the Rocky Mountain Competition, and records new releases annually for Grand Mesa Music.

CONCERT BAND

The 110-piece Concert Band is comprised of a wealth of music and non-music majors, and provides its musicians an opportunity to explore and perform a wide spectrum of band music. In addition to its popular series of concerts, the Concert Band performs for members of the Colorado All-State Band, and regularly presents premieres of new music.
