SING ME TO HEAVEN

Daniel E. Gavochrop, MUSIC
Jane Griner, TEXT

In my heart's sequestered chamber lies truths stripped of poet's gloss. Words alone are vain and vacant and my heart is mute.

In response to aching silence memory summons half-hearted voices, and my soul finds primal eloquence and wraps me in song.

If you would comfort me, sing me a lullaby.

If you would win my heart, sing me a love song.

If you would mourn me and bring me to God, sing me a requiem. Sing me to heaven.

Touch in me all love and passion, pain and pleasure, grief and comfort.

Sing me a lullaby, a love song, a requiem. Love me, comfort me, bring me to God. Sing me a love song.

Sing me to heaven.

FAITH

David Maddux, MUSIC
Patrick Overton, TEXT

When you come to the edge of all the light you have,

And take that first step into the darkness of the unknown,

You must, you must believe one of two things will happen:

There will be something solid for you to stand upon,

Or you will be taught how to fly.

THE AWAKENING

Joseph M. Martin, (B.M.)
Brent Adams, ORCHESTRATOR

I dreamed a dream, a silent dream of a land not far away. Where no bird sang, no sceptles rang and teardrops fell like rain.

I dreamed a dream, a silent dream where the voice of hatred cried that every song, both weak and strong, withered and died.

No alleluia, not one hosanna, no song of love, no lullaby. And no choir sang to change the world. No pipers played; no dancers twirled.

Soli Deo Gloria—Awake, awake my soul and sing! The time for praise has come. The silence of the night has passed; a new day has begun.

Let music never die in me! Forever let my spirit sing! Let all our voices join as one to praise the Giver of the song. Wherever emptiness is found, let there be joy and glorious sound.

Awake, awake!

Let music Live!
