The Auburn University Music Department and the College of Liberal Arts is proud to offer the sounds of the 2010-11 Auburn University Marching Band. This year's band is part of a long and proud tradition that has, for 113 years, represented Auburn University and the state of Alabama with pride, precision, discipline, and energy. The marching band is comprised of students from across the United States and it's members represent virtually every discipline on campus.

The 2010-2011 season will be remembered and celebrated by the Auburn family for many years to come, as both the football program and the tradition-rich AUMB experienced unparalleled success. With 380 performers, the AUMB maintained its record membership in 2010-11. In addition to performances at eight home football games, the full band traveled to Ole Miss and Alabama to cheer on the Tigers and serve as ambassadors for Auburn. Following the regular season, the band performed at the Southeastern Conference Championship in Atlanta, GA and the BCS National Championship in Glendale, AZ. The AUMB spent three days in the Southwest performing at six different locations in Tempe, Phoenix, and Glendale as well as offering rehearsal clinics to local high schools. The trip culminated with pregame, halftime, and stand performances at the National Championship Game at University of Phoenix Stadium and a nail-biting victory and championship for Auburn.

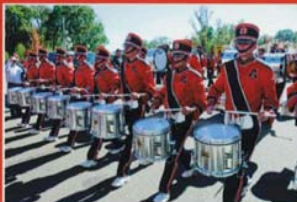

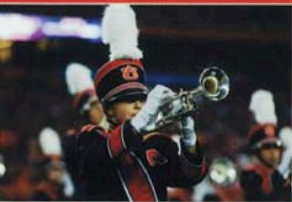

During the season, the band performed a variety of different halftime shows in addition to the traditional pregame show. The AUMB opened the season with "Sinatra," a show featuring classics from "old blue eyes" himself, Frank Sinatra. With its second show, featuring the music of legendary rocker Van Halen, the AUMB turned its attention to the always-energetic Auburn student section. For the Georgia game weekend, the AUMB honored veterans in the crowd with a heart-felt patriotic salute, which featured on-field recognitions of American heroes from each branch of the service. The band completed the season with a fun-filled and colorful "Animation Celebration" which featured popular themes from cartoon television and film. Much of the music from the 2010 halftime shows is included on this disc, along with many of the popular selections used to cheer on the tigers each Saturday in Jordan Hare.

In 2010, AUMB members shared laughter, excitement, and triumph and made wonderful memories while serving as outstanding ambassadors for Auburn University. We greatly appreciate the support of Auburn University President, Dr. Jay Gogue, College of Liberal Arts Dean, Dr. Anna Gramberg, Music Department Chair, Dr. Sara Lynn Baird, and the entire Auburn University Athletic Department. We sincerely hope you enjoy this year's recording.
