

BOW DOWN

TO WASHINGTON

HUSKY MARCHING BAND

There's something special about college football in the fall, especially at the University of Washington. Floating tailgate parties on Lake Washington, 72,500 cheering fans, picturesque Husky Stadium and a team steeped in gridiron tradition make for one of the best college football settings in the nation. Adding a special flair to the gameday excitement is the University of Washington's Husky Marching Band. Pregame and postgame concerts, exciting stadium entrances, spectacular pregame Stars and Stripes programs and innovative and entertaining half-time shows have become commonplace to Husky fans.

Here is your chance to be a part of that excitement with this rousing collection of favorites from memorable Husky Band performances. The first half will take you on a musical journey featuring themes from the movie hits Viva Las Vegas, Robin Hood-Prince of Thieves, Beetlejuice and Jurassic Park. Then hold on tight as the Husky brass explode through Paul Simon's You Can Call Me Al. Topping things off is a true Northwest tradition, Louie, Louie. Seattle-area radio stations revived the tune back in the late 1960's and it has become a staple to Husky Band shows ever since.

The second half of the collection opens with Washington's unique fight song, Bow Down to Washington. Listen to the lyrics and try to find the reference to the fighting troop of World War I. A medley of Doobie Brothers tunes, Listen to the Music, Long Train Runnin' and China Grove will get you tapping your feet before you blast off for the stars. A sweeping rendition of the theme from Star Trek-The Next Generation is followed by Aquarius/Let the Sunshine In and How High the Moon. Gimme Some Lovin', Johnny-Q and the Husky Band signature song, Tequila, collectively symbolize the high energy and musical diversity of this great college band.

So sit back and take in the sounds of the Husky Marching Band. It's sure to make you feel like you're part of the color and pageantry of a fall afternoon in Husky Stadium.

BOW DOWN TO WASHINGTON

Bow down to Washington
Bow down to Washington
Mighty are the men who wear the Purple and the Gold
Joyfully we welcome them within the victor's fold
We will carve their name in the Hall of Fame
To preserve the memory of our devotion

CHORUS

Heaven help the foes of Washington
They're trembling at the feet of mighty Washington
The boys are there with bells,
Their fighting blood excels,
It's harder to push them over the line
Than pass the Dardanelles
Victory, the cry of Washington...
Leather lungs together with a Rah! Rah! Rah!
And o'er the land our loyal band
Will sing the glory of Washington forever.
